

Notes 2.5.2 - Colonization to Independence

- ① After the African coast was explored, European nations wanted control.

Imperialism and Colonialism

- ① Europeans began to control parts of Africa because they wanted resources.
- ② Europeans used advanced weapons to fight over African resources.

Scramble for Africa

- ① The Berlin Conference divided Africa among several European countries.
- ② European missionaries came to Africa to spread Christianity.

African Independence

- ① African leaders began a movement to gain independence from Europe.
- ② The modern day African Union supports unity and economic interactions.